A magnificent contemporary villa built on a 1,075 m² plot located in a quiet residential area, a short drive from Jávea. The villa distributed on two floors has open views of the Mongó and the surroundings. The two floors are connected by an internal staircase and the built area is 219 m². On the ground floor, there is a spacious open plan living-dining room with high ceilings, a fully equipped kitchen, with direct access to the pool terrace, as well as the master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, dressing room, and a guest toilet. Going up the internal staircase we reach the upper floor where the other 2 bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a terrace are located. The property benefits from air conditioning, underfloor heating, an aerothermal system, and automatic shutters. At the entrance to the property, there is space to park two cars and the easy maintenance garden has automatic irrigation.
