Corner ground floor apartment for summer letting or long-term rental, within the prestigious La Sella Golf Resort, Costa Blanca. The el "Carrascal complex" was built in 2004 combining style architectural features of northern and southern Spain, enhanced by sophisticated materials such as marble floor and wall tiles. The apartment's corner position and lateral full-length windows create a special and bright atmosphere in the common areas, which like the master bedroom opens onto the large terrace with beautiful views to the lush common gardens with pool area, the adjacent golf fairways, and the Montgó mountain. The integrated kitchen is large and fully fitted. The master bedroom has an en-suite bathroom. A second bedroom provides access to the south-oriented balcony. There is a second bathroom next to the bedroom. The entrance area is a large covered hall shared with the neighbors. The apartment has an underground parking and storage area. El Carrascal is a 5-minute drive to La Sella's leisure and commercial center with mini-market, bar/restaurant, pharmacy, on-site holiday rental office, tennis courts, horse riding, and 24/7 security service.
